

Rev. Amos A. Phelps,

Boston,

Mass.

Mr. Adbrook.

Beriah Green. Aug. 1839.

My dear Brother; This will introduce to your acquaintance W. Holbrook, who belongs to the Cong. Ch. in this place, I who visits Boston to improve himself in the divine art of singing. I hope, that as a good minister of Jesus Christ, you will smile kindly upon him, & as you have opportunity, do him good. I hear little of late of your doing & designs. I doubt not that you are hearty, active & faithful in the service of that dear Saviour, who died for us. May His blessing be upon you, freely & richly! From a paragraph in the Liberator, I infer that Rev. Hubbard Winslow officiated in inducting you into your office, by seeking, as such an one could, the divine blessing upon you! I cannot think that the blessing of Winslow must be about as much to be prized as (see Carlyles French Revolution. The Feast of Pikes) the blessing of Talleyrand.

Remember me with warm affection to our dear bro. Wright. Tell him, if you please, that I think he has done well by the pro-slavery clergy of Vermont. He image of a mounted warrior with both hands on the pommel of his saddle!

I send you a copy of our Circular. I hope that we have not taken too much liberty with your name.
We shall, God helping, soon urge our friends to help us. Shall we not be able to carry our plans, so briefly indicated in this paper into effect? Pray for us & aid us, My dear Brother.

I may perhaps be able to send you a Catalogue for 1839. Our superintendent has begun to print a book - "Greens Miscell. writings!" Yours in the Lord Jesus; with much love for you
B. Green.
